

RESURRECTION CATHOLIC CHURCH

Coral Springs, Florida

The Resurrection project was the construction of a new sanctuary building for an existing Catholic congregation. The sale of existing property allowed a small church to construct a beautiful new facility with room for additional phases on a new ten acre site. The prominent and contemporary design includes 40' high ceilings, stained glass (moved from the original church), wood carvings as well as an integrated sound and lighting system.

Owner

Catholic Diocese of Orlando
Orlando, Florida

Architect

Rick Swisher Architect, AIA
Winter Park, Florida 32789